2. You shall not commit another federal, state or local crime;
3. You shall not leave the judicial district without the permission of the court or probation officer;
4. You shall report to the probation officer as directed by the court or probation officer and shall submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month;

You shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute, or administer any narcotic or other controlled substance, or any paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician. Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3583(g), the revocation of supervised release is mandatory for possession of a controlled substance;
10. You shall not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, used, distributed, or administered;
11. You shall not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and shall not associate with any person convicted of a felony unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer;

15. As directed by the probation officer, you shall notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by your criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and shall permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm your compliance with such notification requirement;
16. You shall not possess a firearm or other dangerous weapon.

NOTE: If the Commission has ordered a period of supervised release that expires before the full term of your foreign sentence, your foreign sentence remains in effect and continues to serve as the maximum authorized term that you may be required to serve. The district court will, therefore, have the option under 18 U.S.C. §3583(e)(2) to extend your period of supervised release to the full term of your foreign sentence. If your supervised release is revoked, the district court may order any combination of reimprisonment and supervised release that does not exceed the sentence imposed by the foreign court, as authorized by 18 U.S.C. §4106A(b)(1)(C).

I have read, or had read to me, the conditions of release printed on this statement and I received a copy thereof. I fully understand the conditions and know that if I violate any conditions, I may have my supervised release revoked.
